GREETINGS!

Hello there! I'm Kelly Lamar, and I have dedicated over 30 years to the field of education. Throughout my career, I've taken on the roles of an elementary administrator and a teacher for elementary grades. Teaching and empowering students to excel is my true passion! Recently, my husband and I relocated to Lindale, and we absolutely adore it here. With two grown children and a grandchild on the way, our family is growing. This upcoming year marks my first as a teacher in Lindale ISD, and I am eager to establish meaningful connections with our students and their families.

Some of the things I love...

Hobbies: Spending time with family, traveling, golfing, and walking.

Favorite Colors: Green and Blue

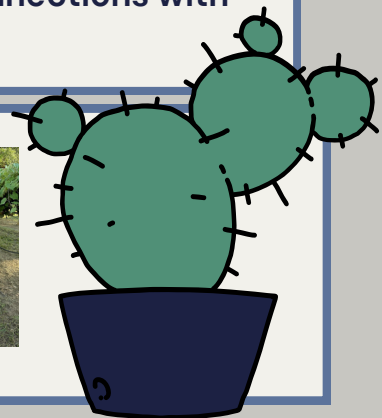

Children's Book: "I Wish You More"

Animal: Dogs

Music: Eclectic tastes

Sports: Go Cowboys

Drink: Diet Coke, Lemonade
